

1. Vic Juba Community Theatre designates the following classifications of employment:

Full-time Employee

A full-time employee is an individual assigned to a full-time position established for no less than 40 hours per week on a permanent basis.

Part-time Employee

A part-time employee is an individual assigned to a part-time position established for no less than 20 hours per week on a permanent basis.

Casual Employee

A casual employee is an individual not defined in the two categories above and is hired for short-term projects or event based work assignments.